According to Scripture, God created "the heavens and the earth" fully formed and functioning in six days, about 6,000 years ago (around 4000

BC). The context of Genesis 1, as well as other places in the Bible, make it clear that these days were ordinary, 24-hour days. God's original creation was perfect, with no death or suffering.

Creation | Answers in Genesis

The creation narrative must be factual and not just a myth, for, if it is fictional, then the values it imports are man-reasoned, subject to change as man "evolves," and therefore invalid. The basis of the modern-day conflict between science and religion (especially Christianity) is the assumption that (atheistic) science is fact and religion is merely superstition and myth.
